News Around Town

By Mrs. Calvin Robinson

I laughted at this one, so will pass it along to you:

Little Henry was getting ready to return the call of a little friend and his mother was briefing him.

"If they ask you to stay for dinner," she instructed, "say no thank you, I have dined."

But at the visit, the friend's father said, "Come along my dear, and have a bite with us."

"No, thank you,' replied Henry, 'I have already bitten."

Appomattox High School football team will journey to Crewe Friday night to play Crewe H. S. Hope a lot of fans will go and support the local team, which, by the way, seems to be in the midst of winning ways.

Congressman and Mrs. W. M. Abbitt spent Sunday with Congressman and Mrs. Thomas B. Stanley, of Stanleytown.

There will be a home-coming and dedication service at the Central Baptist Church on Sunday, September 30. Dinner will be served on the grounds.

We are glad to report that Dr. D. A. Christian has returned to his home here after spending several months in the Virginia Baptist Hospital. He is recovering from a recent illness.

Mrs. Herman Schweizer will be the guest speaker at the Methodist Youth Fellowship at 6:45 P. M. this Sunday.

Ladies of the Appomattox Presbyterian Church are sponsoring a "Home Bake Sale" Saturday in the office building next to the Times-Virginian.

Sgt. 1-C Thomas A. Smith, who has been stationed at Fort Belvoir, Va. since January will receive his discharge Friday morning, and will return to his home here that evening.

Pvt. Charlie Daniel Lewis, of Fort Jackson, S. C., was home for the past week-end and attended the Lewis-Coleman wedding Saturday.

Norfolk & Western painters are in town on a general improvement job on railroad property. The woodwork at the depot, the warehouse next to the depot and the residence of the section foreman have been or are being painted.

LEWIS - COLEMAN

The wedding of Miss Lucille Mae Coleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivey Coleman to Richard Clark Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lewis of Appomattox, was solemnized Saturday, September 15, at 8:00 P. M., at Mount Comfort Methodist Church. The Rev. L. F. Callahan officiated, assisted by the Rev. G. E. Hughes.

The church altar was decorated with fan-shaped candelbras, baskets of white gladioli and shasta daisies and ferns. Nuptial music was provided by Miss Virginia Lewis, vocalist, and Warren C. Martin, accompanist.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Otho W. Martin, Jr., the bride wore a gown of organdy with chantil lace yolk and long pointed sleeves, and scalloped bemline. Her finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a prayer book with orchids, showered with stephanotis and ivy. She wore an heirloom necklace of her mother's.

Mrs. W. Herbert Richardson, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a white nylon trimmed taffeta gown and carried a cascade of white summer flowers. Flower girl was Betty Jo Richardson, neice of the bride, and ring bearer was Jimmie Martin, nephew of the bride.

Pvt. Charlie Daniel Lewis, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Groomsmen were W. Herbert Richardson and Lathan Harvey, of Appomattox.

The bride's mother was attired in a dress of grey crepe and the groom's mother was dressed in navy blue. Both added corsages of white Shasta daisies and baby's breath at the shoulder.

A reception followed in the home of the bride. For traveling the bride changed to a navy blue suit with matching accessories and orchids at the shoulder. The couple left for a northern bridal trip, after which they will make their home in Appomattox.

PRYANT - HARVEY

Native greens, graduated candelabra, baskets of flowers and cathedral candles decorated Spring Creek Baptist Saturday evening September 15, for the wedding of Miss Emilie Harvey, of Washington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chapman Harvey, of Darlington Heights, to Archibald Faden Bryant, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Bryant, of McEwin, Tenn.

The Rev. R. P. Bryant, the bride's pastor, was celebrant, using the double ring ceremony. Walter Payne, Jr., sang "The Lord's Prayer," as the benediction.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of blush pink satin, fashioned with fitted bodice, high neckline and calla sleeves. The skirt, fitted with hoops, was of Chantil lace panels with satin drapes extending to the hem and terminating in the long cathedral train.

Miss Ida Harvey, twin sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Terrill Harvey, another sister, and Miss Elizabeth Baker, a cousin, were bridesmaids. Little Linda Blank, a neice of the bride, was flower girl.

William Blank, of Washington, was the groom's best man. Ushers were Ryland Harvey, Joseph Repass, of Richmond; Richard Cronk and Edward Tellriff, of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryant will make their home in Washington.
